Biographical / Historical

Harold Loucks was born in 1894, and graduated with an M.D. from Western Reserve University. In 1922 he became an assistant resident in Surgery at the Peking Union Medical College, and in 1930 he became the head of the Surgery department there. While at the PUMC he married Mary Swisher, the nurse-anesthetist for the college. Mr. Loucks was an employee of the China Medical Board from 1948 through 1955, and the China Medical Board of New York 1955-1963, 1965.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Scope and Contents

The papers focus on the years after World War II and the reconstruction of the Peking Union Medical College, and include reports and correspondence by Loucks from China Medical Board, Inc. sponsored trips to the Far East, 1951-1964. The countries surveyed include: Japan, Hong Kong, Philippines, Indonesia, Malaysia, Siam (Thailand), Burma, Ceylon, India, Pakistan, Lebanon, Korea, Vietnam, and the Trust Territory. The reports include information not only about the status of medical education, but also about the social and political climate of each country.

Collection Inventory

Correspondence, 1920-1976, bulk 1950-1976 (bulk)

Physical Description: 0.4 Cubic Feet 1 document case

Scope and Contents

This series contains personal correspondence between Loucks and people associated with the China Medical Board. It includes some administrative correspondence regarding the Peking Union Medical College.

Of special interest in the Correspondence series is the Reinhard Hoepli file of letters, which describe in some detail the "PUMC" and China after 1951.
