Biographical/Historical note

Paul Ehrlich, 1854-1915, physician and scientist, Berlin and Frankfurt, Germany. Founder of hematology, pioneer and major contributor to the fields of histochemistry and immunology. Famous for his development of chemotherapy (arsphenamine - 606) for syphilis. Nobel Laureate in physiology or medicine in 1908, jointly with Elie Metchnikoff for their studies in immunology.

Martha Marquardt, 1873-1956, secretary to Paul Ehrlich from 1902-1915. Author of two books about Paul Ehrlich, "Paul Ehrlich" als Mensch und Arbeiter", 1924. "Paul Ehrlich" in English 1949 and in German 1950. Moving force behind the publication of "The Collected Papers of Paul Ehrlich", 1956 and transcriber of 47 volumes of Paul Ehrlich's copy-books. Author of various plays and articles.

Scope and Contents note

This special collection of the Rockefeller University pertains to two individual. The material was sorted accordingly into two distinct collections, entitled "Paul Ehrlich Material" and "Martha Marquardt Material".

The collection consists of letters received by Paul Ehrlich, a synopsis of their contents, handwritten manuscripts by Paul Ehrlich, contracts between Ehrlich-Behring and Hoechst. Handwritten notes and "blocks" by Ehrlich. Reprints, photographs, paper cuttings and obituary notices. The collection contains some Paul Ehrlich memorabilia and an oil painting.

The Martha Marquardt part of the collection contains voluminous correspondence, letters received by Martha Marquardt as well as carbon copies of letters written by her. It contains material regarding her two books about Paul Ehrlich, many articles and plays she wrote, as well as a film she made about flies. There are many photographs of Martha Marquardt, her family and friends. There are some reprints and books and because of her long-standing friendship with Sir Almroth Wright, there are some items concerning him.

Revision Description

Paper finding aid converted to EAD/XML by AureXus in 2010. Imported into the Archivists' Toolkit by Becky Robbins. 17 August 2010

Custodial History note

The material in the combined collection was in Martha Marquardt's possession at the time of her death in 1956. Many of the items in the "Paul Ehrlich Material" were sent to her after World War II, when she had emigrated to England. These items had been stored in Geneva, where Mrs. Hedwig Ehrlich had fled to in 1939. A list of articles from the "Geneva Chest" is part of this collection (Box 2a, Folder 1). Many of these items on this list have been deposited at The Rockefeller University Archives by the 2 grandsons of Paul Ehrlich, Hans and Günther Schwerin, in 1978.

Immediate Source of Acquisition note

The papers and memorabilia of Paul Ehrlich and Martha Marquardt were deposited, with The Rockefeller University Archives in May 1980 by the Trustees of the will of Sir Henry Solomon Wellcome.

Conditions Governing Access note

Written permission must be obtained from the Head of Donor Relations/Collection Development of the Rockefeller Archive, or an applicable designee, in order to access the collection.

Scope and Contents note

Martha Marquardt made a synopsis of the letters after they were sent to the Wellcome Museum in London. The letters had been taken by Hedwig Ehrlich to Geneva and stored there until their transferal was requested by Mr. Günther Schwerin. This is indicated by a cover sheet which reads: Contents of letters to Ehrlich in the chest which was sent from Geneva to the Wellcome Museum, London, by request to Mr. Günther Schwerin, New York. There is a bound copy of this synopsis, 3 typescript copies. A photocopy was made to check the letters received against this synopsis. Some letters listed in the synopsis are missing; others were removed and placed in more appropriate places within this collection.

Typed list of contents from the Geneva chest, 6 pages.
