Margaret (Peggy) McGrath Rockefeller (1916-1996) was a dedicated conservationist and environmentalist. She was married to banking executive and philanthropist David Rockefeller.

In 1970, Peggy Rockefeller founded the Maine Coast Heritage Trust (MCHT) to protect and preserve areas of ecologic value across the state. During this time, she also began to purchase and raise pure-bred Simmental cattle in Maine on Bartlett Island and in Pocantico Hills, New York.

In 1980, she founded the American Farmland Trust, using her experience in farming to build programs that focused on national conservation easements.

Peggy Rockefeller was also highly involved with the New York Botanical Garden (NYBG), where she helped fund a collection of books on America's wildflowers. In 1988, the renowned Peggy Rockefeller Rose Garden at the NYBG opened in her honor. She was also an active member of the Nature Conservancy, National Trust for Historic Preservation, and the New York Philharmonic. She also regularly contributed to many art and conservation causes.
