Biographical/Historical note

The Faculty and Students Club, Inc. was organized in 1957 where members could bring and store their own liquor until 1959 when a liquor license was granted. An independent, non-profit organization, the Faculty and Students Club was organized to facilitate the informal associations of faculty and students and their wives and friends. While operated separately from the administration of the RIMR and then the University, its members, by the terms of its corporate charter, must be associated with the University. Leo Wachsmuth was its first manager, serving until his retirement in 1981.
