Biographical / Historical

Andrea Taylor founded Media Projects, a unit within Media, Arts, and Culture (MAC) at the Ford Foundation, in 1988, and she served as director of the program until 1997.

During Taylor's tenure at the Ford Foundation, she managed $50 million in support of global film, video, television, and radio projects, including Sesame Street in China and South Africa, television series such as Eyes on the Prize and The Pacific Century, and National Public Radio.
