Collection Inventory

Select Correspondence

Arrangement

Series I, Select Correspondence, is arranged by subject. The subjects are in chronological order from the date of the initial document. Within each folder the documents are in reverse chronological order.

Scope and Contents

Series I, Select Correspondence, contains .25 linear feet of correspondence, memoranda and minutes of the Public Interest Law Advisory Committee (PILAC). This series documents PILAC activities (1970-77) both in recommending action on grant proposals and in developing a theoretical framework for "public interest" law and practice (see also log file L71-328). This series also documents some of Mr. Jaffe's work in the area of conflict resolution. Series I includes memoranda and correspondence on the establishment of the National Institute for Dispute Resolution (see also grant file PA 83-205), the Gay Head [MA] Taxpayers Association Wampanoag Tribal Council dispute and Jaffe's incoming correspondence on his New Approaches to Conflict Resolution: A Ford Foundation Report (1978).

Chronological Files

Arrangement

Series II, Chronological Files, are in reverse chronological order. Within each folder the documents are also in reverse chronological order.

Scope and Contents

Series II, Chronological Files, consists of one linear foot of Mr. Jaffe's outgoing correspondence and memoranda including routine transmittal notes to colleagues, reminders to grantees of their annual narrative and financial reports, and acknowledgements of invitations to annual meetings and conferences. In addition to the administrative matters, this series documents Mr. Jaffe's work in developing the field of public interest law. Letters to PILAC members and to Joel Handler, Burton Weisbrod and Mauro Cappelletti are note worthy in this respect.

The chronological files include correspondence to: Public Interest Law Advisory Committee (PILAC) members Whitney North Seymour, Sr., Bernard G. Segal, Orison S. Marden, and William T. Gossett, to individuals at the Center for Law in Public Interest, the American Arbitration Association, the Native Americans Rights Fund, Vera Institute of Justice, the American Civil Liberties Union Foundation, the Citizens Communication Center, the Natural Resources Defense Council, Center for Law and Social Policy, the Environmental Defense Fund and the Education Law Center, and to colleagues at the Ford Foundation.
