History of the Committee

In March 1967, Governor Nelson Rockefeller and Chancellor Edgar W. Couper of the New York Board of Regents, jointly appointed a Select Committee on the Future of Private and Independent Higher Education in New York State. The members of the Committee were: McGeorge Bundy, Chairman, Dr. James Conant, Dr. John Hannah, The Reverend Theodore M. Hesburgh, and Dr. Abram Sachar.

The purpose of the Committee was to determine the role of government in private higher education, and to advise the Governor and the Board of Regents on how the State could fund private institutions without jeopardizing their independent status. A final report recommending that government be active in strengthening statewide educational planning and in providing financial assistance to private higher education was made public in January 1968.

This is not a complete collection of all materials relating to the Select Committee on the Future of Private and Independent Higher Education in New York State, but rather those papers retained by George Griffiths and sent along with his office files to the Ford Foundation Archives. Mr. Griffiths, a Ford Foundation Program Officer in Public Education, was not a formal member of the Committee, but was involved in its day-to-day activity.
