Biographical/Historical note

The Commonwealth Fund was established in 1918 with an endowment of $10 million from Mrs. Stephen V. Harkness for "benevolent, religious, educational and like purposes." The early grants supported a variety of programs while generally promoting welfare, especially child welfare. Several grants were made in the field of medical research, but the Board of Directors decided in 1920 that this field was already sufficiently supported by other philanthropic organizations.

Despite this decision, by the mid-1920s the chief interest of the Fund had become public health, including mental hygiene, community health, rural hospitals, medical research, and medical education. Other grant areas included war relief, educational and legal research, child welfare, and international medical fellowships.

Arrangement note

This subseries is divided into three sections: Books Received, No Books Received, and Miscellaneous. The sections Books Received and No Books Received are arranged alphabetically by author. The Miscellaneous section is arranged alphabetically.

Scope and Contents note

The first two sections of this subseries consist of correspondence and financial papers. The Books Received section is concerned with receiving certain books from authors, while the No Books Received section is concerned with the opposite. The various manuscripts of "Patterns of Human Growth" by Edith Boyd are located in the Books Received section. The third section, Miscellaneous, consists of the papers of directors, consultants, and publishing companies. The subseries dates from the late 1960s to the early 1980s.

Arrangement note

The folders are arranged alphabetically by book; however, part of this subseries is missing so that the books only go as far as the Ds.

Scope and Contents note

The sixth subseries is concerned with the publishing of certain books. The subseries consists of correspondence and financial papers with publishing companies and involves such publishing matters as bindings, engravings and jackets. The documents date mostly from the 1920s to the 1940s. Some of these books are reviewed in the subseries Reviews.
