Biographical/Historical note

Alvin Moscow was born in New York City on December 31, 1925. He attended New York City public schools and St. John's University. Moscow received a degree in Journalism from the University of Missouri. His postgraduate training was at the City College of New York.

Moscow was an assistant to the Night City Editor at "The New York Times" from 1943-1944. In 1948 he went to work for the Associated Press as a radio newswriter. The following year he became a general news reporter for the AP and remained there until 1959. During 1961-1962 Moscow was a consultant to Richard M. Nixon in the writing of "Six Crises" and various newspaper columns. He remained with Nixon during the California gubernatorial campaign of 1962, serving as a speech writer, general spokesman, and political analyst for the out-of-state press corps. Moscow was also a consultant to William S. Paley in the writing of "As It Happened" (1979).

Revision Description

Migrated from Re:discovery to the Archivists' Toolkit by Marisa Hudspeth 11/5/09

Conditions Governing Use

RAC users must abide by all applicable provisions of United States copyright law. Reproduction/ duplication of archival items is routinely provided in accordance with "fair use." If the RAC does not hold copyright for an archival collection, or items within a collection, it is the user's responsibility to contact the copyright holder, or make a fair effort to do so, prior to publication.

Conditions Governing Access

Open for research. Brittle or damaged items are available at the discretion of RAC. Researchers interested in accessing digital media (floppy disks, CDs, DVDs, etc.) or audiovisual material (audio cassettes, VHS, etc.) in this collection must use an access surrogate. The original items may not be accessed because of preservation concerns. To request an access surrogate be made, or if you are unsure if there is an access surrogate, please contact an archivist.

Processing Information note

The collection was initially processed by Terry Brookens in April 1979, and processing was then completed by Kathy Brennan in April 1981.

Immediate Source of Acquisition note

The Alvin Moscow papers were deposited at the Rockefeller Archive Center in December 1977, March 1978, and August 1979.

Research Material

Scope and Contents note

Series 1 contains notes, correspondence, and interviews collected by Moscow during his years of research on the Rockefeller family. The bulk of the information in these files was gathered through interviews with Rockefeller family members and associates.

Arrangement note

This series is arranged by family member (John D. Rockefeller, Sr.; John D. Rockefeller, Jr.; Abby Aldrich Rockefeller; Abby Rockefeller Mauze; John D. Rockefeller 3rd; Nelson A. Rockefeller, Laurance S. Rockefeller; Winthrop Rockefeller; David Rockefeller). There is also a section for the Rockefeller Brothers as a group and for the Rockefeller Cousins. For the most part, papers within the folders for each family member or group are divided into four categories: biographical material, notes, research correspondence, and drafts.
