Biographical / Historical

In March 1966 the Ford Foundation appointed Andrew Carnduff Ritchie (1907-1978), Director of the Yale University Art Gallery, as a consultant to select and purchase works of art for the Foundation's new headquarters building in New York City. The appointment was to last approximately one year.

Ritchie's career included positions as Director, Albright Art Gallery (now, Albright-Knox Gallery) from 1942-1949; Director of the Painting and Sculpture Department, Museum of Modern Art from 1949-1957, and Director, Yale University Art Gallery from 1957-1971. During World War II Ritchie served with the celebrated "Monuments Men" in the Monuments, Fine Arts, and Archives (MFAA) section of the U.S. Army, as a representative of the Commanding General in Austria.
