Biographical/Historical note

---

Graham Molitor was born in Seattle in 1934. He earned a B.A. degree from the University of Washington in 1955 and an LL.B. degree from the American University in 1963. He was admitted to the bar in the District of Columbia in 1963. After working as a court bailiff in the District of Columbia and as a legislative counsel in the House of Representatives, Mr. Molitor was hired as Director of Candidate Research of the Rockefeller for President Committee in 1963. He was responsible for monitoring and analyzing statements made by other candidates for the Republican presidential nomination. He served until Governor Rockefeller withdrew his candidacy in 1964, and then served in the same capacity again in Governor Rockefeller's 1968 presidential campaign. From 1963 to 1977 he worked as a lobbyist for the food industry. In 1977 he established Public Policy Forecasting, Inc., and has written, lectured, consulted and participated in numerous public policy conferences all regarding future trends in food, technology and related public policy issues.

Conditions Governing Use

RAC users must abide by all applicable provisions of United States copyright law. Reproduction/ duplication of archival items is routinely provided in accordance with "fair use." If the RAC does not hold copyright for an archival collection, or items within a collection, it is the user's responsibility to contact the copyright holder, or make a fair effort to do so, prior to publication.

Conditions Governing Access

Open for research. Brittle or damaged items are available at the discretion of RAC. Researchers interested in accessing digital media (floppy disks, CDs, DVDs, etc.) or audiovisual material (audio cassettes, VHS, etc.) in this collection must use an access surrogate. The original items may not be accessed because of preservation concerns. To request an access surrogate be made, or if you are unsure if there is an access surrogate, please contact an archivist.
