Scope and Contents note

This small series contains only a portion of the files of the New York State Committee to Reelect the President [Nixon]. The original extent of the materials was twelve cubic feet. However, shortly after the materials were deposited in the Rockefeller Family Archives, the NYS Committee to Reelect the President (NYS CREEP) was audited by the Internal Revenue Service. The majority of the materials was sent to Washington, DC, and was never returned. The original folder listing of the full collection of 12 boxes is in Box 2, Folder 14. The remaining materials--which comprise this series--were originally found in boxes 9, 10, and 11.

These fragmentary materials document aspects of the 1972 presidential election, the last election prior to more stringent campaign finance laws taking effect. Among these remaining materials are receipts for contributions made to NYS CREEP. There are also cancelled administrative checks indicating the costs associated with running a presidential campaign. However, as noted in the attached separation sheet, specific tax documents pertaining to NYS CREEP staff have been removed and destroyed by the Rockefeller Archive Center.

As Governor of New York, Nelson Rockefeller took a prominent role in the 1972 presidential election, although Rockefeller and President Nixon were long-time political rivals. There is no evidence in this material, however, of any direct involvement by Nelson A. Rockefeller in NYS CREEP.
