Biographical / Historical

Marjorie Martus, Ford Foundation Program Officer in the Division of Education and Research, was a member of the Foundation staff from 1958 until 1982. During this period, she held the positions as a research assistant, program assistant, assistant program officer, and program officer.

Marjorie Martus was born July 13, 1923. She received her B.A. degree in 1945 from Antioch College. She did additional course work at Columbia University, New York University, and the Bank Street College of Education.

Prior to Martus' career with the Ford Foundation, she held the following positions:

1945-1946, Office of War Information, Information Specialist

1946-1948, U.S. Department of State, Divisional Assistant, Division of International Exchange of Persons

1948-1954, United States Government, Technical Assistance Specialist; Economic Cooperation Administration, The Hague, The Netherlands

1954-1955, Douglas Williams Associates, Office Manager; Interviewer

1955-1956, Milliontex, Inc., Officer Manager

1956-1957, Rockefeller Bros. Fund, Staff Assistant

Following her retirement from the Ford Foundation, Miss Martus was employed by the School of Education at Stanford University.

Scope and Contents

The Education and Research/Public Education Papers of Marjorie Martus were transferred to the Ford Foundation Archives in 1982.

The seven boxes of correspondence and reports which constitute the Education and Research/Public Education Papers of Marjorie Martus, document her activities and a number of those of the Education Program for the years 1962 to 1968; and from 1971 to 1975.

The papers include material related to Ford Foundation educational activities and projects; and correspondence with Foundation colleagues, and individuals in academic, grantee and other organizations.

The papers are broad in scope, but are rather disappointingly superficial, especially in light of Miss Martus' activity and reputation. It is recommended that the researcher consult the files of grants for which Miss Martus served as Responsible Program Officer, a list of which is included in the appendix to this register.

Arrangement within each series corresponds as closely as possible to the original order established by Martus' office.
