Biographical/Historical note

Dr. Goebel (1899-) a biochemist, dedicated his time and energy to the study of the body's chemical defense against infection by microorganisms. He joined the Rockefeller Institute as research assistant, 1924-1927, associate, 1927-1934, associate member, 1934-1944, member, 1944-1957, and professor, 1957-1970. He became professor emeritus of the Rockefeller University in 1970.

Professor Goebel received the Avery-Landsteiner Prize of the European Society of Immunologists, in 1973 and honorary doctor of science degrees from Middlebury College, Vermont, in 1959 and the Rockefeller University, in 1978.

Goebel was born on December 24, 1899 in Palo Alto, California. He received a Ph.D. degree from the University of Illinois in 1923 and served there as a scholar in Chemistry from 1920-1921.
