Biographical / Historical

Jeffrey Puryear worked for a number of years at the Ford Foundation. In 1977, he worked as a Program Advisor for the Foundation's Andes Region and the Southern Cone Program. He then became a Program Officer for the umbrella Latin America and Caribbean Program in 1978. Following a change in the Foundation's program organization, Puryear became a Program Officer in the Developing Country Programs Division. From 1985 to 1989, he served as the Foundation's Representative for the Andes Region and the Southern Cone and was based at the Lima, Peru office.

Puryear's post-Ford Foundation career has included his work for the Inter-American Dialogue. At the Inter-American Dialogue, he has served as a vice president for social policy, a co-director of the Program for Educational Revitalization in the Americas (PREAL), and a senior fellow in the Education Program. He earned a Ph.D. in comparative education from the University of Chicago.
