Biographical / Historical

The Rules of the Board of Trustees adopted in 1911 provided for an annual audit of the books of the Treasurer and also the books of account of the Board of Scientific Directors by an auditor or auditors appointed by the Board of Trustees who shall be a person or persons not connected with the Board.

Changes in By-Laws in 1966 provided that an Audit Committee consisting of not less than three and no more than five members of the Board of Trustees elected at the annual meeting recommend the appointment of independent public accountants to audit the accounts of the Corporation and review the reports submitted by such accountants and advise the Board of Trustees thereon.
