Biographical / Historical

Anne C. Kubisch is a foundation executive who worked for several years at the Ford Foundation. In 1985, she joined the Foundation as an Assistant Program Officer in the Developing Country Programs. She then moved from the larger Developing Country Programs to its specific West Africa Program as Assistant Representative and Program Officer. Later, she moved to the Urban Poverty Program where she worked as a Program Officer before being appointed Deputy Director.

After leaving the Ford Foundation in 1994, Kubisch became Director for the Roundtable on Community Change at The Aspen Institute. In 2003, she became President and CEO of the Ford Family Foundation (TFFF).

Kubisch earned a B.A. in English from Tufts University and a master's degree in public policy from the Princeton University School of Public and International Affairs. Prior to joining the Ford Foundation, she worked as a Staff Assistant to David Rockefeller.
