Immediate Source of Acquisition

The Foundation for Child Development records were donated to RAC in 1998.

All records described in this guide were received by RAC in 2012, and accessioned as 2012:052.

At the time of ingest, the records were initially received in 13 standard record storage cartons (15.6 cu. ft.).

Processing Information

Standard processing by Assistant Archivist Richard Torres, 2013.

Initial inventory entered by Diane April, September 2012.

Conditions Governing Access

Records are open for scholarly research, with select files restricted (as noted).

In accordance with standard RAC policies, personnel records are restricted from scholarly access.

RAC is unable to provide access to obsolete media and original digital media. In addition separated media may not yet have undergone stabilization procedures. When feasible, a digital surrogate may be created via special order. All applicable charges will apply. See RAC Head of Archival Services or RAC Head of Digital Programs for details.

Conditions Governing Use

RAC users must abide by all applicable provisions of United States copyright law. Reproduction/duplication of archival items is routinely provided in accordance with “fair use”. If the RAC does not hold copyright for an archival collection, or items within a collection, it is the users’ responsibility to contact the copyright holder, or make a fair effort to do so, prior to publication.

Conditions Governing Use

In so far as it holds them, RAC has legal title, copyright and literary rights to the records.

The Rockefeller Archive Center has authority to grant permission to cite and publish material from the collection.
