Biographical / Historical

Lisa Mensah is a foundation executive whose work has focused on economic development and economic security. For more than ten years, Mensah worked at the Ford Foundation. She started as a Program Officer in the Rural Poverty and Resources Program before becoming Deputy Director of the program. Following a reorganization of the Foundation's program structure, she was made Deputy Director of the Asset Building and Community Development Program (ASSETS), Economic Development unit.

Mensah's post-Ford Foundation positions included her time as Executive Director of the Initiative on Financial Security at the Aspen Institute. She served in the United States Government as Under Secretary of Agriculture for Rural Development during the Obama Administration, and she became President and CEO of the Opportunity Finance Network (OFN) in 2017.

Mensah earned a B.A. from Harvard University and an M.A. from The Johns Hopkins University. Prior to joining the Ford Foundation, she worked in commercial banking at Citibank.

Conditions Governing Access

Records are open for research with select materials restricted as noted. Brittle or damaged items are available at the discretion of RAC. Researchers interested in accessing digital media (floppy disks, CDs, DVDs, etc.) or audiovisual material (audio cassettes, VHS, etc.) in this collection must use an access surrogate. The original items may not be accessed because of preservation concerns. To request an access surrogate be made, or if you are unsure if there is an access surrogate, please contact an archivist.

Immediate Source of Acquisition

Ford Foundation archive was deposited at RAC in 2011. Ford Foundation records, correspondence, reports, program files and officers papers were transferred to, and accessioned by, RAC beginning in 2011. Accessions continue as necessary.

Processing Information

Level 1 Minimal Processing has been conducted to establish basic intellectual and physical control of the material and assess immediate preservation and conservation needs. Material remains as received, in original folders and storage boxes.
