Biographical / Historical

Millard "Mitty" Owens is a nonprofit executive in the field of community development. He joined the Ford Foundation in 1998 and worked for several years as a Program Officer in its Asset Building and Community Development Program (ASSETS), Economic Development unit.

Owens' post-Ford Foundation career has included his position as an Adjunct Professor at the New York University Wagner School of Public Policy from 2007-2009. He then founded Community Impact Consulting. Later, he served as a Process Facilitator at EmcArts and as a Program Director of Confluence Philanthropy. In 2020, he became Director of the Capital Strategies Program at Transform Finance.

Owens completed his undergraduate education at Yale University and earned an M.S. in community economic development from New Hampshire College (now Southern New Hampshire University).
