Biographical / Historical

Esther Roditti Schachter (1933-2017) was a lawyer who worked for several years as a Program Officer in the Ford Foundation's Division of National Affairs, Government and Law Program. After leaving the Ford Foundation, Roditti entered the computer law field. She founded the Computer Law and Tax Report newsletter and established a private practice.

Roditti also had an interest in environmental law. Her work "Enforcing Air Pollution Controls: Case Study of New York City" was published in 1974. Prior to joining the Ford Foundation, she had positions at The New School for Social Research and Columbia University. She earned her B.A. from the University of California, Los Angeles and earned her law degree from Harvard Law School.

Immediate Source of Acquisition

Ford Foundation archive was deposited at RAC in 2011. Ford Foundation records, correspondence, reports, program files and officers papers were transferred to, and accessioned by, RAC beginning in 2011. Accessions continue as necessary.

Conditions Governing Access

Records are open for research with select materials restricted as noted. Brittle or damaged items are available at the discretion of RAC. Researchers interested in accessing digital media (floppy disks, CDs, DVDs, etc.) or audiovisual material (audio cassettes, VHS, etc.) in this collection must use an access surrogate. The original items may not be accessed because of preservation concerns. To request an access surrogate be made, or if you are unsure if there is an access surrogate, please contact an archivist.
