Biographical / Historical

The Ford Foundation was chartered by Henry and Edsel Ford in 1936 "to receive and administer funds for scientific, educational and charitable purposes, all for the public welfare", and initially served the Ford family's charitable interests in the Detroit area. Following the deaths of Edsel Ford (1943) and Henry Ford (1947), the Foundation was propelled to the forefront of philanthropy as the largest American foundation in terms of both endowment and yearly expenditures, and with an international scope to its major program areas. During the Foundation's first twenty years its major programs were in international economic development, primary and higher education, educational and public broadcasting, behavioral sciences, civil liberties, urban development, fine arts and the humanities. The Ford Foundation also partnered with the Rockefeller Foundation in supporting agricultural development in South America, Africa, and Southeast Asia. Since the 1970s, the Foundation has also pioneered programs in women's rights, energy policy, micro-financing in under-developed countries, establishing human rights groups, and improving international HIV/AIDS education.

Scope and Contents

The Office of the Secretary was established in 1950 and the Office of the General Counsel was established in 1971. The two offices merged in the early 1980s. The Grants Processing Unit within the Office of the Secretary was responsible for maintaining official copies of Recommended Grant Actions forms and Delegated Authority Projects, memoranda, and official files relating to the tax status and classification of grantee organizations.

The collection reflects the activities of the Office of the Secretary. The collection contains grant forms used by the Ford Foundation, grant notification letters, grant application materials, meeting materials, correspondence, and memos.

Arrangement

The collection is arranged into four series:

Series 1: General Grant Files

Series 2: Grants Out of Appropriations

Series 3: Officer Grants

Series 4: Overseas Development Grants

The collection is arranged chronologically. The physical arrangement of the collection does not match its intellectual arrangement because the collection is comprised of several accessions that did not come to the RAC in a consistent, chronological order.
