Biographical / Historical

Terry Tinson Saario's career has included positions in research, philanthropy, the Federal Government, and business. During the 1970s, she worked as a Program Officer in the Ford Foundation's Division of Education and Research and related education programs.

After leaving the Ford Foundation, Saario worked in the Carter Administration as a Deputy Assistant Secretary for Planning and Program Integration in the Department of Education's Office of Educational Research and Improvement. She later served as Vice President for Communications at the Pillsbury Company and President of the Northwest Area Foundation.

Saario completed her undergraduate education at the University of California, Riverside in 1963. She then earned a Master of Arts Degree from UC Riverside in 1966 and a Ph.D. from the Claremont Graduate School in 1970.
