Biographical / Historical

The Rules of the Board of Trustees adopted in 1911 provided for an elected Executive Committee of not more than five members of which the President was to be a member ex-officio (on October 29, 1926 amended to six members including the President). The duties were to exercise all the powers of the Board of Trustees when the Board was not in session (except if otherwise provided).

The reorganization of 1953 enlarged this Committee to no more than seven members (six elected) including the Chairman of the Board, whose powers were unchanged by the reorganization.
