Biographical / Historical

The National Committee on United States – China Relations (NCUSCR) was established in 1966 as a nonprofit educational organization with a mission to encourage mutual understanding and dialogue between citizens of the United States and China.

The National Committee came into being through the cooperative efforts of scholars and civic, religious, and business leaders who, at a time of mutual hostility between the two countries, sought to stimulate public discussion about China and the United States' relations with it by sponsoring conferences, seminars, publications, and other education and outreach programs. In 1972, the National Committee sponsored the Chinese table tennis team's historic U. S. visit. This round of "Ping Pong Diplomacy," which followed closely on Richard Nixon's visit to China in February 1972, helped pave the way for later exchanges and, eventually, for the normalization of relations with China in 1979. Building on these cultural exchanges, the National Committee came to be a primary organizer of professional and policy exchanges between the two countries (and including Hong Kong and Taiwan), in the areas of foreign affairs and international relations, economic development, governance and legal affairs, education, mass media, environmental and global issues, etc. As its role in exchanges became more prominent, the National Committee turned over some of its educational programs to the Asia Society in the late 1970s, but it continues its educational role through public education events and ongoing outreach.

Funding for the National Committee comes from the United States government (especially the Department of State), corporations, and foundations, as well as from its individual membership.

Scope and Contents

RG 2 of the NCUSCR records contains files documenting its sponsorship of Conferences, Seminars, Workshops, and Dialogues on foreign policy and relations with China, including U. S. - China Dialogues, which ran from 1984 to 2002. Files in the Programs, Projects, and Proposals series concern the U.S. - China Labor Law Cooperation project, 2002-2007, and the National Committee's University Field Staff program, 1966-1973. RG 2 also contains records of Exchanges to China through the Fulbright-Hays Summer Seminars Abroad, for the period 1982-2010, as well as a few general Exchanges files. A series of Personnel files is restricted.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Arrangement

The records of the National Committee on United States – China Relations are divided into ten record groups, which reflect the order in which the records were received (but which are otherwise an artificial distinction). The records are sorted intellectually into series, which carry over through all record groups, but they have received little or no physical rearrangement. RG 2 of the NCUSCR records contains records from five series: 2 - Exchanges - General; 3 - Exchanges to China; 5 - Conferences, Seminars, Workshops, and Dialogues; 8 - Programs, Projects, and Proposals; 17 - Personnel records.

Exchanges to China, 1977-2010

Scope and Contents

The Exchanges to China series in RG 2 documents Fulbright-Hays Seminars to China from 1982 to 2010. This program, which the National Committee ran for the U. S. Department of Education and the Chinese Ministry of Education, sent sixteen American teachers (and sometimes post-secondary educators) to China each summer on a five-week study tour of Chinese history and culture, or in a few cases language training. Files include namelists, itineraries, reports, detailed program evaluations by the participants, and some of the curriculum projects that teachers created upon their return. In addition to the Fulbright seminars, the series also includes records of delegations of local and state education leaders who visited China in 1977 and 1978.

Conferences, Seminars, Workshops and Dialogues, 1984-2006

Scope and Contents

The Conferences, Seminars, Workshops, and Dialogues documented in RG 2 range in date from 1984 to 2006 and explore issues pertaining to China's emergence as a global player and engagement with China. Topics include Chinese foreign and economic policy, relations with Taiwan and Hong Kong, media coverage of China, and the future of U. S. – China relations. The series particularly includes records of the U. S. – China Dialogues (I – XI, 1984 – 2002), which the National Committee and the Chinese People's Institute of Foreign Affairs initiated as a way of facilitating frank and productive discussion of sensitive issues between the two countries.

Programs, Projects, and Proposals, 1966-1973, 2002-2008

Scope and Contents

The Programs, Projects, and Proposals series in RG 2 contains records of the NCUSCR's University Field Staff program, 1966-1973, which engaged graduate students and faculty in organizing workshops and other educational outreach programs on China on campus and in their surrounding communities.

The series also includes the records of the U. S. – China Labor Law Cooperation Project, 2002-2007, a five-year project to improve labor laws in China, which the National Committee, together with the Asia Foundation and Worldwide Strategies, Inc., conducted under contract from the U. S. Department of Labor. National Committee involvement focused on drafting the Labor Contract Law and Regulations on Labor and Social Security Inspection. The Committee organized workshops in China, as well as U. S. study tours and internships for Chinese legislative and labor officials, and then developed a curriculum and training program for Chinese labor inspectors.
